Meetings

January - At the January 12 meeting a film from the America series, "Going West", was shown. An outing and program sheet was passed around to members for ideas. The members voted to increase membership dues. Members were asked to donate relics of any kind to the Nowata County Historical Museum to be displayed for a few months.

February - At the February 9 meeting the annual Show & Tell was held. Carol Carnes started a coffee kitty of 10¢ per cup to help defray costs.

March - Paul & Donna Rutherford of Claremore gave a bottle presentation.

May - Bob Freeman gave a presentation complete with slides on relic hunting. It was first mentioned in the May 1980 newsletter about charging members for not wearing their wooden nametags to the meetings.

June - Earl & Betty Easley gave a presentation on antiques. Elwood Sells won the National Hunt prize donation drawing for a 2 1/2 peso gold coin.

July - A Garrett treasure hunting film was shown. A record number of 24 visitors attended the meeting.

September - At the September 13 meeting the Carnes, Owens and Huntleys gave a presentation of slides and relics from the "Colorful Colorado Caravan".

October - At the October 11 meeting a record attendance of 73 was recorded.

ITTHC HISTORY

November - On November 8 & 9, the meeting and a special hunt were held at Lakeview Amusement Park. There was a $5 fee to hunt anywhere on the 40-acre site. There were 49 entries in the hunt. Most of the fees collected went to the Shriner's Crippled Children Hospital. There were planted hunts and an auction. There was a covered dish meal Saturday at 6 pm before the meeting. The grass was high for the hunts and the lighting for the meeting was dim. (A Coleman lantern was used for additional light.) The meeting started at 7:30 pm and was held in the penny arcade room. Bob Freeman, Terry Humphries, Jack Mullen and John Freeman shared slides, maps and other details of the Jenkins Ferry outing. Mel McLain donated a $50 scrap car to the scrap metal project. ITTHC received a check from Lost Treasure magazine for new subscriptions.

December - The December 13 meeting and Christmas party were held at Southern Elms Apartments. Jim Webb was named 1980 Treasure Hunter of the Year, followed by John Freeman and Joe Treece. The club furnished ham and turkey. This event was the first reported in the newsletter using the now familiar, "if your last name begins with A-H, bring a vegetable, etc." 85 members attended the event. The Southern Oaks Apartments clubroom was deemed to small for the growing membership. Noreen Grufik selected a family with 3 children for this year's Christmas project. There were 5 boxes of clothing, a baby bed, blankets and enough canned goods donated to the Christmas project that Bob & Noreen Grufik had to make 3 trips to deliver everything. In December, club president Bill Huntley remarked in the newsletter that he enjoyed the after meeting gatherings at Kip's Big Boy. ITTHC received over 20 books from Lost Treasure magazine for the club library.

News

January 6 - Jim Simmons found an 1881 Morgan dollar and became the first member of the prestigious newly formed "Silver Dollar Club". To be eligible, members had to find a Peace or Morgan silver dollar.

September 20 - Lone Star Treasure Hunters Club 6th Annual Texas Championship Treasure Hunt at Grapevine, Texas. A caravan of ITTHC members attended the event.

October 26 - ITTHC Semiannual Coin Hunt at John Freeman's home. Earl Foster was the hunt chairman. After the board voted to add $300 over the entry fees to the hunt, 70 members entered the event. There was an estimated $500 in coins and prizes for this hunt. It was reported that Indian Head cents cost $27 per roll, V-Nickels cost $12.50 per roll and Buffalo nickels cost $9.50 per roll.

November 1 - A haunted house was held at the home of the Fosters with prizes for best costume.

November 27, 28, 29 & 30 - Thanksgiving Outing at Jenkins Ferry, Arkansas. Those who attended included Terry Humphries, Bill Humphries, Gene & Sylvia Humphries, Howard Stanart, Jim Simmons, Jim Webb, Jack & Norma Mullen, Terry & Ann Archer, Bob Freeman, Tom Dickinson, Earl & Elizabeth Foster, Gary & Wanda Carnes, Jay & Jeanie Gill, Bill & Della Ruth Huntley. There were 3 turkeys and a ham provided by the club and cooked by Della Ruth Huntley, Wanda Carnes, Elizabeth Foster, Jeanie Gill and Sylvia Humphries at the hunt site. It was discovered at this outing that Gene Humphries was the best gravy maker ever. Jack Mullen cut wood for the group with his chainsaw and Jay Gill kept a good fire going all the time. Jack Ames came to the outing from Topeka, Kansas and became a member of our club. During this outing, 17 hunters found 65 Civil War items on Thursday, 21 hunters found 234 items on Friday, 19 hunters found 267 items on Saturday and 16 hunters found 53 items on Sunday. Bob Freeman found the most items with 103. Howard Stanart found a 3" Hotchkiss artillery shell affectionately referred to as his "maxi ball". Other items found during the outing included a "U.S." mule trace chain, gun tools, an eagle brass bag lock, a bayonet, 3 apothecary weights and a 1779 Spanish 2 Reale coin. Gary Carnes and Bill Huntley had to leave by 11 am the last day. At 10 am Bill got a deep signal. Digging fast, he retrieved 10 minie balls from the hole. He told Gene Humphries to finish digging the hole. Gene found 85 more minie balls in that hole! The outing was so successful that Gary Carnes, Howard

After approving the change, Bob Freeman was elected to fill the position. Gary Carnes presented Bill Huntley with a plaque for his 2 years of service as president.

April - The Humphries, Freeman, Mullen, Foster and Huntley families talked about their relic-hunting trip to Alabama.

ITTHC HISTORY

May - Jay Gill spoke about his Ecuador gold-seeking trip.

July - Gary Carnes spoke about his recent trip to Colorado. In a special presentation, Bob Freeman received a t-shirt with "ITTHC Raffle Master" on the back, a patch and his name on the front.

September - At the September 12 meeting in a special election, Howard Stanart was elected to replace Byron Carnes, who resigned as board member.

October - At the October 10 meeting the local White's dealer, Ernie Hill, provided a White's treasure hunting film for the program. Members voted to have the Christmas party catered. Later the board decided, after finding how expensive this would be, to have the usual covered dish supper instead. Gary Carnes, 1982 National Hunt Chairman, started a 50/50 pot with half of the proceeds going toward coins for the National Hunt. The first 50/50 pot of $14.25 was won by Howard Stanart. Gary Carnes made a special presentation to Jeanie Boyles, who was always winning books in drawings, always claiming she couldn't read. She received a 1967 Red Book with a hand-made Indian necklace inside where pages had been cut out.

November - Gary Carnes, Bob Freeman, Bill Huntley and Jim Webb gave a presentation on how to clean finds. For the second time in a row, Howard Stanart again won the 50/50 pot, this time for $22.50.

December - The December 12 meeting and Christmas party were held at Maxwell Recreation Center. The club again provided the turkeys and ham for the party. Gary Carnes made a special presentation of a clock to John and Sue Freeman for hosting the Semiannual Coin Hunt at their home for the past 5 years. Carol Nobles broke Howard Stanart's lucky streak by winning the $22 50/50 pot. Newly elected president, Jim Webb, presented Noreen Grufik with a Barber half-dollar for her many years of service as Find of the Month tabulator and for her work with the National Hunt. He also presented 2 turquoise nuggets to Della Ruth Huntley and a picture frame to Gary and Wanda Carnes. John Freeman was named 1981 Treasure Hunter of the Year with 2nd place going to Joe Treece and 3rd place going to Jim Webb. Noreen Grufik selected a family of 4 adults and 5 children for the year's Christmas project. Jeanie Boyles chaired the project. Used clothing, canned goods and cash donations were accepted from members. Ray Crutchfield donated a turkey for the family.

News

March - Postage increased from 15¢ to 18¢. Members could advertise in the newsletter. A business card sized ad for members cost $1 and a commercial ad cost $2.

May 23 - Covered dish supper and Night Hunt for the helpers at the National Hunt site.

May 24 - 10th Annual ITTHC National Hunt in Sand Springs. For the first time, ITTHC held a Civil War Relic Hunt as part of their National Hunt. Prizes in the Civil War Relic Hunt included bayonets, Confederate money, South Carolina buttons, Georgia buttons, Confederate "I" buttons, a U.S. sword belt buckle, a U.S. belt plate, U.S. eagle breast plates, a Jefferson Davis hat emblem, U.S. box plates, Civil War atlases, a 20 lb. parrott C.S. shell, 12 lb. solid shots, an artillery projectile book, bullet books, artillery shell fuses, gun tools, a Georgia pike and a shovel. Prize tokens, minie balls and knapsack hooks were buried. There were a total of 162 entries from 9 states in this year's hunt. There were 12 detectors as prizes in the Main Hunt and 2 in the Kid's Hunt. The Kid's Hunt had 16 entries. Terry Humphries was the National Hunt Chairman.

June 6 & 7 - 6th Annual Central Iowa Treasure Hunter Club Treasure Hunt at Des Moines, Iowa. 6 ITTHC families attended the event. At the June 13 meeting Mike Rieke, editor of Lost Treasure magazine, talked about what the magazine looks for in an article and asked for new article ideas. In a special presentation for his service as National Hunt Chairman, Terry Humphries was given a t-shirt with "ITTHC Hunt Chairman" on the back. A club patch and his name appeared on the front of the shirt. He was also given a redwood clock with silver coins as numbers. 2 buttons from "King's Treasures" of Cedar Rapids, Michigan were given away in a drawing. Pat Bogle won a button that said, "Make me happy - lose a coin." Lucille McCoy won the other button, which said, "TH'ers have dirty fingernails." On June 20 28 adults and 13 kids attended a club outing at O'Brian Park to enjoy homemade ice cream. On June 27 & 28 the Nebraskaland Treasure Hunt was held at Dyers Park, Leroy, Nebraska. 5 ITTHC families attended the event. Editor Della Ruth Huntley's typewriter blew its cool and shot the "E" right out the window. Terry Humphries offered a loaner so the newsletter could be completed.

July 19 - Club outing at the Arkansas River 11th Street bridge to teach members how to pan for gold. Bob Owens and Bill Huntley conducted the outing.

August 15 & 16 - Topeka Treasure Hunters 7th Annual Treasure Hunt at Topeka, Kansas. 13 ITTHC families attended the event. There was usually a caravan of ITTHC members who would attend these hunts on the National Circuit. "Johnny Reb" Freeman's Rebel flag and his Oklahoma flag nearly always marked the club's
